Dig out your Christmas gear and pretend it's December, northern style, without making that very long trip ...

CHRISTMAS IN JULY D'Arcy Arms Irish restaurant, Surfers Paradise

Have you always wanted to celebrate a traditional Christmas in the cold of the northern hemisphere? Well, famous Irish eatery D'Arcy Arms in Surfers Paradise may be able to save you the cost of the trip. Every day, lunch and dinner during July, Mick Ellison and his team are offering a traditional Christmas dinner with all the trimmings. A big open fire, Christmas tree,insel, fairy lights and carols are all part of the fun. Last Thursday Mick and the team started the month-long celebration with a yuletide feast. Only one stipulation: bring your own presents.
